Dear Ms. Ho,

Outstanding Performance of Your Alumnae in Travel Experience Share 2015

We are pleased to share with you the good news that Yung Sze Shu and Yung Tsz Lam, two of your alumnae, had outstanding performance in Travel Experience Share (TES) 2015. Sze Shu, Tsz Lam and their team competed against 9 other participating schools and were awarded 4 out of 5 prizes, including the Best Team, Best Presentation (Team), Best Presentation (Individual) and Creative Blog awards.

TES is an educational project the brainchild of the Wai Yin Association. It aims at providing motivated students with an opportunity to travel overseas to experience a different culture and share their adventures through daily blogging. Sze Shu, Tsz Lam and their team made 'Stressed turned Desserts' their study focus as 'stressed' spelt backwards is 'desserts'. They researched and planned their own itineraries and budgets and implemented them in a thirteen day trip through 31 Swiss cities between 7 and 20 July, 2015.

Sze Shu, Tsz Lam and their team demonstrated a high level of motivation, critical thoughts, creativity and teamwork throughout the competition. Sze Shu, Tsz Lam and their team demonstrated a high level of motivation, critical thoughts, creativity and teamwork throughout the competition. Their seriousness, persistence and enthusiasm had helped their team to achieve its success. Their hard work ultimately brought them the rewards they deserved and most importantly the judges' recognition.

Sze Shu and Tsz Lam's achievements are bundles of joy to be shared between your school and ours. We would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to you as we believe your school equipped Sze Shu and Tsz Lam with the solid foundation which enabled them to persevere and work toward their goals.

You are most welcome to contact Mr. Choi, the chairperson of School Information & Publication Committee (SIPC) at 27450010 should you require further information.

Yours Sincerely,

Dr. Wong Shiu-hung, Stanley
